SAMPLE CONCLUSION – (barely) SATISFACTORY

Essay question: Examine the causes and effects of prejudicial attitudes and beliefs in the novel, To Kill a Mockingbird.

Strengths:

- Sentences are grammatically correct (communication).

Tips for Improvement:

- While all elements of a concluding paragraph are present, more development of each step is necessary. The problem of a factual thesis affects the development of the entire essay, including the conclusion (application).
- The thesis and outline of arguments are basically copied from the introduction; rewording would add variety (communication).
- Add more transition words (communication).
- Stay in present tense (communication).
